

Friday, February 19th, 2010 @ 7:30 a.m.

Topic: International Legal Issues

Speaker: Mark Sundahl of Cleveland State University

We are pleased to extend an invitation for you to join us at the next “Export Today” discussion of growing your business via exports. This month’s forum will feature a presentation of International Law and commercial transactions. This free meeting begins at 7:30am and will conclude by 9:00am on Friday, February 19th at The Stocker Foundation Boardroom, 401 Broadway (first floor), Lorain, Ohio 44052. Free parking in the surface lot next to the building. Coffee and light refreshments will be provided.

International commercial law should be of concern to an exporting company. Professor Sundahl teaches courses in international business law and commercial law. He is the co-author of a treatise on secured transactions and has published articles and lectured around the world on international commercial law, space law, and legal history. He received his B.A. from UCLA and his J.D. from University of California, Hastings College of Law. He also has a PhD in Classics from Brown University.

This presentation is offered free of charge by The Lorain Port Authority.

Please RSVP by Wednesday, February 17th to mvinesky@internationaltransport.com or call 1.800.783.7871

Special thanks to our host, The Stocker Foundation

The Small Business Development Center of Ohio (SBDC) program is funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration. The SBDC program is also funded in part by the Ohio Department of Development. All opinions, conclusions or recommendations expressed are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the SBA. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advance.